12.30-14.00 Lunch

14.00-15.30 THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL BENEFITS OF SELF-MEDICATION
A combination of decreasing resources being allocated to healthcare and an increasing demand for high-quality products and services translates into a need for innovative and more efficient patient services. Self-medication has a valuable role to play in saving human and financial resources for the healthcare system. In this way, headroom is created for innovation in the treatment of severe illnesses. What is the best way forward?

Chair:
Dagmar ROTH-BEHRENDT
Vice-President of the European Parliament
Friday, 10 June 2011

09.00-10.30 CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND THE SELF-CARE INDUSTRY

The pharmaceutical sector is heavily regulated. Compliance of the self-care industry with regulatory requirements, protecting consumers and creating a stable and sustainable business environment through self-regulation will be discussed in this session as the basis for wider support. This should facilitate the acceptance of and access to non-prescription medicines all over Europe.

Chair:
Hans REGENAUER
AESGP President

Keynote presentation:
Antonio TAJANI
Vice President of the European Commission responsible for Industry and Entrepreneurship

Discussion with participation of:
Patrizia TOIA
Member of the European Parliament
June RAINÉ
Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency (MHRA), UK

10.30-11.00 Coffee/Tea Break

11.00-12.30 CREATING SMART REGULATION FOR SELF-CARE PRODUCTS

Changes in the legislation for pharmaceuticals have a significant impact on the self-care industry. Smart regulation for self-care products is essential to ensuring a free and open internal market. It determines whether products can be launched without untimely delays and unnecessary restrictions in the communication of product information. This session covers recent regulatory developments and examines the potential for taking positive future steps.

Chair:
Hubertus CRANZ
Director General, AESGP

12.30-14.00 Lunch

14.00-16.00 GETTING THE RULES RIGHT FOR FOOD SUPPLEMENTS, MEDICAL DEVICES AND COSMETICS

Self-care products are available in different product categories. This session will cover developments since the adoption of the 2006 health claims legislation and their significance for manufacturers of food supplements. New trends in the rules for cosmetics and the assessment of self-care medical devices will also be discussed.

- Thursday 9 June 2011 from 08.00 till 17.30 hours
- Friday 10 June 2011 from 08.00 till 16.30 hours

CONFERENCE LANGUAGES
Simultaneous translation into English and Italian will be provided during the conference sessions on 8, 9 and 10 June 2011.

THE ANNUAL MEETING ONLINE
A webpage has been set up for the conference at http://www.aesgp.be/Rome2011.asp. The conference programme, speaker profiles and available presentations can be found at this address.

SOCIAL MEDIA INTEGRATION

Twitter
During the conference, participants will have the opportunity to send questions and comments for the speakers via Twitter. These will be presented as a feed within a blog specifically set up for the conference, and integrated into the conference proceedings through the sessions’ chairs.

Questions and comments sent for the speakers via Twitter should always contain the keyword #aesgpROME and could either be sent to the AESGP account (@aesgp) or just posted on the participants’ accounts. A possibility for sending questions and comments via SMS will also be provided. These can be sent to the telephone number +39 331 7363460. Messages received via SMS will be uploaded on the Twitter feed under the account @47QC.

“Live Event” discussion
A discussion through Facebook’s “Live Event” application will also be taking place during the conference. Visiting the conference blog, participants will be able to join the discussion and share their comments and views on the conference.

The conference blog with the Twitter feed and the Facebook application for live discussion will be broadcast throughout the conference at the conference room’s three side screens.

ATTIRE

Business attire is recommended for the opening reception and dinner at the Villa Miani on Wednesday 8 June 2011 and casual dress for the reception followed by dinner on Friday 10 June 2011 at the Hotel Rome Cavalieri.

TOUR FOR ACCOMPANYING PERSONS

The guided tour for accompanying persons “A private view of Italy” on Thursday 9 June 2011 will include a private visit to Palazzo Sacchetti, a palace still inhabited by the family of Marchesi Sacchetti situated among Via Giulia’s most remarkable buildings, a visit to Oratorio del Gonfalone, the Palazzo Farnese, residence of the French Embassy and the Galleria Spada nearby. Mini buses will depart from the Hotel Rome Cavalieri at 09.00 hours and will return by 17.00 hours.

CLOSING RECEPTION AND DINNER

The conference will end on Friday 10 June 2011 with a reception and dinner in the park near the swimming pool area of the Hotel Rome Cavalieri (in case of bad weather in the Belle Arti room).

During the reception and dinner there will be entertainment by Claudio Colasazza, a well-known jazz pianist. After dinner there will be the possibility to dance in the Belle Arti room to famous songs played by the DJ Matteo.

BUS TRANSFERS

Buses will be provided on Thursday 9 June 2011 and on Friday 10 June 2011 at 08.20 hours to transfer participants and accompanying persons from the Grand Hotel Tiberio to the Hotel Rome Cavalieri.

In addition, there will be a transfer on Wednesday 8 June 2011 at 19.00 hours from the Grand Hotel Tiberio to the Villa Miani; return transfer after dinner at around 22.30 hours.

Buses will leave on Friday 10 June 2011 at 19.00 hours from the Grand Hotel Tiberio for the reception and dinner at the Hotel Rome Cavalieri. There will be no return transfer as it will be easy to take a taxi back from the Hotel Rome Cavalieri to the Grand Hotel Tiberio.
